I'm going all out on this one with black and white photos and it's a lifestyle-comic-book-style book. The goal is to show what I can do, but I'd also like to show that I can work for pay. I would love to get feedback on my work from you or others. I would like to work with others, because I know that having others work with you can be more cost-effective and less stressful, but I want to make sure that it's a good match. I don't want to rush you into work that isn't good for you, but I also want to make sure that we all work well together. Please, if you would like to hire me, just email me at dirty_angel4@hotmail.com and we can discuss prices and timing. Thanks, Aaron P.S. If you have any recommendations or you'd like to see how I can do different pieces of work, please let me know. I'd like to do, at least, another piece of work with you before we start asking for money. I don't know yet what the fee will be, but I need to put some time into figuring out how to do my thing. If we start working together, I want to make sure it's a good match. Work to be done: -Clean up hair in the photo. This might be hard to do with your hair, but I think it's possible. -Tattoo a different part 77a5ca646e
